

Rolling Hills PTO NEWS for February, 2018

NEXT MEETING Tues., Feb. 13TH, 6:30 p.m., Rolling Hills Library

FEBRUARY, waiting for the thaw! We had a great VIP Breakfast in January, thanks to all of you parents. The kids loved coming to school in their jammies, and having pancakes with that special someone. And thank you to all of the parents and teachers who helped serve. It would not be a success year after year without all of your help! Watch for info. to come home soon for the Spring Book Fair and Parent Lunch Week 2/26-3/2.

PLAYGROUND – As we await the “thaw,” keep posted for updates over the next few months for the fun events we will have planned for the ground-breaking for our new, AWESOME, playground equipment. Long-term goals are to add integrative equipment and matting so that all of our students can enjoy the playground, and Katie Shea is doing a fantastic job raising those funds. She has organized 50/50 raffles and silent auctions, including a ‘Movie with your Favorite Teacher & a Friend,’ at events around the community. Here is the schedule for February for the Silent Auction:

For just $10, you can drop off your child, and mom and dad can go to an early Valentine’s Day dinner! Or come and stay with your child for no cost. The movie will be announced in a few days. Watch for the flier with permission form to come home this week.

We will need volunteers to make this event run smoothly, so watch for the Sign-Up email for workers and bakery to come to your E-mail box shortly.

BAKE SALE BAKERY REQUESTS – Keep your eyes open for ‘Sign-Up’ emails coming throughout the Spring, asking for your help at the Bake Sales. These Bake Sales benefit the Music Department and are hosted during the various Spring concerts coming up. Please help these truly dedicated teachers to continue providing an amazing music program! The next concert is the 3rd & 4th Grade Vocal Concert on Feb. 22nd, 2:30 & 7:00 p.m..
