

The Mustang Way

Expectations for School-Sponsored Events

Respect Yourself

- Be respectful, remove your hat & stand for the National Anthem
- Practice patience, stay in line when waiting for the restroom
- Stay in the designated area (MHS- Section for middle school students, PVMS bleachers)
- Realize that attendance at school activities is a privilege and spectators have a responsibility to observe and positively support the activity

Respect Others

- Provide positive encouragement and support for own team, without being rude or cheering against the other team – cheers not jeers!
- Accept the decision of referees and officials
- Show concern if a player gets hurt, even when the player is on the opposing team
- Sit down when the crowd around you sits
- Obey supervisors who are there to keep order during the sport
- Resist being drawn into negative conduct by other fans

Respect Your Environment

- Show respect for school and public property
- Keep trash and other objects off the field/court/track/etc.
